"My sheep hear My voice . .."
John 10:22-27

In today's text, Jesus calls His followers sheep.
He refers to Himself as the Good Shepherd.
Shepherds and sheep have a special relationship.
Jesus expands our understanding of His relationship with us and encourages us to not forget what a Good Shepherd He is!

Let's listen to what Jesus says and then follow Him...

He is always speaking to me!

Jesus wants us to remember...

"My sheep hear my voice." verse 27
We need to listen!
Revelation 3:20

"I know them." verse 27
He has a heart for me!
Matthew 28:20 , Ezekiel 34:2,11,14, 31,
Isaiah 40:11, John 10:14

"And they follow me." verse 27
We need to respond to what we hear!
John 10:4 , Acts 22:14

When He speaks to you, you will know it is Him
when you can feel the love.
How long has it been since you really listened to Him?

Will you take some time this week to get alone with Him,
and stop asking for stuff or for help,
and instead think about His heart for you?
Then wait and listen... look for the love...
and be ready to share it!
