Live the Adventure

"Take away the stone."
John 11:32-43

On the Adventure of following Jesus, each of us has faced such pain and loss in our lives that it makes us ask:
"Where is the Lord when life hurts?
If the Lord loves me then why did He allow this to happen to me?"
Tough questions....
What kind of answer would Jesus give to such questions?
In today's text, we get some clues as we explore
His interaction with a grieving family...

AdventureTruth: He is always here for me!

Jesus weeps. verses 33-36
Hebrews 4:15-16

Jesus takes responsibility. verses 37-39
Job 1:21 and 2:9-10

Jesus inspires faith. verses 40-44
2 Corinthians 1:3-5

The reality that Jesus is always here for me is a tremendous comfort in the face of suffering... and I can help others to experience life-change
when I reach out to them with His love in their times of need.

That's how I "Live the Adventure"
even in the midst of pain and loss!
