Live the Adventure

"For God so loved..." John 3:14-18

In today's text, Jesus is explaining important information to a religious teacher named Nicodemus.
It is a familiar statement, but don't let its familiarity blind you to the profound necessity of what Jesus is teaching.
This little conversation has some very big implications for us!
So let's listen to what Jesus said and then follow Him…

His grace gets me going.

It starts my relationship with Him.
Romans 3:21-24, Ephesians 2:8-9

It sustains me on the adventure.
James 4:6, II Thessalonians 2:16-17, II Corinthians 8:9

There is a surplus, so let's share it.
I Timothy 1:14 , Titus 2:11

Grace is His idea, His work, and His expense.

Our job is to inform people - not to screen people.

He offers grace to who He desires,
when He desires.

Let's help others take advantage of His grace!
