

Blockbusters of the Old Testament
The Beginning
Genesis 1

The Old Testament is full of blockbuster stories. Epic events that describe God's connection with man. These stories are familiar and yet so profound we can easily miss the point.

These blockbusters aren't a collection of myths or folklore. They are the revealed Word of God, ancient words for life today. What was God telling us? What difference can they make today? What truths can we apply to our lives from this account?

We will address these questions and more throughout our series of blockbusters. Remember, blockbusters are life-changers when we understand and apply them.

From this Blockbuster we learn three life-changing truths:

Creation is for you - "it was good"

Do you believe God is intent on providing good for you?

You are like your Creator - "in His own image"

Choose to live your life in honor of Him!

Your Creator wants to bless you - "God blessed them"

Blessing means He gives life... will you receive it?

Big Idea of this Blockbuster:
God really loves you ... a lot!
