

Staying Soaked

Psalm 15

Every believer has the desire to have a close walk with the Lord.

He puts that desire within you, and He wants to fulfill it.

But He won't do it without your cooperation.

If you want to feel close to the Lord, you will need to adjust your life to Him.

You have to come to Him on His terms.

This psalm gives us some clues on how to respond rightly...

The Question:

Who can live close to God? (vs. 1)

The Answer:

He whose life is blameless. (vs. 2)

The Promise:

Live blameless and you will live close to God (vs. 5b)

The Explanation: (vs. 2b-5a)

Blameless ≠ perfect

Blameless = desire to please God

I show the Lord I want to please Him in my:

Actions Speech Attitude Character

If I want to live close to God...

My activity needs to match my identity.