

Trusting God

Psalm 91

Trusting God can be hard, especially when life kicks you around.

But God desires to be a refuge for us...actually He already is!

He IS a place to run to and find shelter from the battles of life. So why don't we?

Why don't we cling to Him when we feel like we are drowning...?

Trust = to place the full weight of your life on

We trust God when we love Him. (verse 14a)

"Love" = "attached; set upon; to cling to" (verses 3-4)

Love God and He will rescue you.

We trust God when we know Him. (verse 14b)

To know Him is to name Him. (verses 1-2)

Elohim "Most High" & "God"

El Shaddai "the Almighty"

Yahweh "the Lord"

Know God and He will answer you.

We trust God when we are satisfied in Him. (verse 16)

He fills, everything else empties. (verse 5-13)

Find satisfaction in God and He will save you.
